

Rentex Computer & Audio Visual Rentals Places on Inc. 5000 List for Third Consecutive Year

Rentex, one of the largest, most respected providers of audio visual, production, and computer rental equipment, is pleased to announce that it has earned a place on the Inc. 5000 list of American's fastest growing private companies in the U.S. for the third consecutive year, ranking 25th in the "computer hardware" category.

Rentex, one of the nation's largest, most established providers of audio visual, production, and computer rental equipment, is pleased to announce that Inc. magazine has recognized it as one of the top 5000 fastest-growing private companies in the country for the third consecutive year. Rentex placed 3872nd on the 2016 list and 25th in the "computer hardware" category as an Inc 5000 Honoree.

The Inc. list offers a comprehensive overview of a vital segment of the American economy – independent entrepreneurs, and recognizes private companies that have sustained outstanding revenue growth over a three-year period.

Richard Flaherty III, President and CEO of Rentex Inc. said about the honor, "It's a real thrill to be on the Inc. 5000 list for the third year in a row. Being recognized as one of America's fastest growing private companies is a wonderful testament to our ability to sustain the quality of our products and services while expanding. We recently opened a new location in Anaheim, CA, bringing us to a total of 9 locations across the United States, all while continuing to expand our inventory and offerings. We thank our loyal clients for their business, and the over 200 dedicated employees that have made this great achievement possible."

Inc. 5000 companies reported aggregate revenue of over $200 billion while generating more than 640,000 jobs over the past three years, around 8% of all jobs created during that time. Rentex joins an elite list of companies that have appeared on the Inc. list, including Zappos, Microsoft, Patagonia, Oracle and others.
